Terms and conditions

Terms of payment

Retreat deposit, 50% of total fee are due with the registration, the outstanding 50% must be paid in full two weeks before the beginning of the retreat. For registration within the four weeks before the retreat, full payment is due immediately. For any booking, please contact me before to ensure that places are still available.

Temporary COVID-19 policy – In the event of another outbreak of COVID-19, that prevents travel, closes borders or results in the retreat not being possible to run, all deposits paid to Claudia Wiens will be refunded in full.

Cancellation by the participants

If you cancel more than two weeks before your booked arrival date, the organiser will return your payment, less 15% for admin costs. If you cancel less than two weeks before your booked arrival date, the organiser will return your payment, less 50%. If you cancel less than forty-eight hours before your booked arrival date, you will not receive a refund. But the participant can suggest a replacement person.

Cancellation by the organizers

Claudia Wiens reserves the right to cancel the retreat due to extraordinary circumstances. In this case, applicants will be given a full refund at no charge. The retreat will, if at all possible, be postponed to best suit both the organisers and original applicants. Applicants can opt to participate at the new date or choose the refund. Claims to Claudia Wiens are not entitled.

Retreat content

The organizer will endeavour to fulfil the advertised curriculum and content of the retreat. However, the organizer reserves the right to make minor modifications to these due to unforeseen circumstances, such as wishes of the participants or weather.

Privacy policy

The organiser will save (for organisational reasons) the names, contact details and payment receipts of all of the participants. The transfer of data to third parties will not take place.

Other information

Jurisdiction for both parties is in Spain, and completion of the retreat is at the Mill.Space. The contractual relationship, as well as all related claims, are subject exclusively to Spanish law. If sections or individual terms of this document are not, or have become illegal, the remaining terms of this document will remain unaffected in their content and validity.

I recommend to obtain a travel insurance.
